

Your Reading Community

Take a moment to think about the people who help your child grow as a reader.

Write or draw the people who help your child learn, read, talk, sing, play, and explore.

Ideas

- Parent or caregiver
- Grandparent
- Teacher
- Librarian
- Brother or sister
- Friend
- Neighbor
- Childcare provider
- Someone else who spends time with your child

Reading, talking, singing, writing and playing with trusted people helps your child become a reader.

This is your reading community!

Growing Readers Daily

Children build early literacy skills throughout the day. Check off some activities you'd like to try together.

Home

At home, we can...

- ☐ Read together
- ☐ Talk about our day
- ☐ Sing songs
- ☐ Draw pictures
- ☐ Tell stories
- ☐ _____

Library

At the library, we can...

- ☐ Borrow books
- ☐ Go to Storytime
- ☐ Ask a librarian for book ideas
- ☐ Read together
- ☐ Learn about literacy
- ☐ _____

School

At 3K, Pre-K, or Kindergarten, my child may...

- ☐ Read books
- ☐ Learn new words
- ☐ Sing songs
- ☐ Notice letters
- ☐ Play with classmates
- ☐ _____

Everyday moments

Where else can we build literacy?

- ☐ On the bus
- ☐ At the grocery store
- ☐ Cooking together
- ☐ Walking outside
- ☐ At the park
- ☐ _____

Reading, talking, singing, playing, and writing together every day helps children build the language and literacy skills they need for school and lifelong learning.

Hang this up at home as a reminder!
